WINTER

- Learn more about the area by stopping into the visitors center, at 301 Frontage Road in Lafayette, where you can pick up free brochures and regional maps. Take time to click through our website at HomeOfPurdue.com and download our mobile app.
- Attend the Christmas Parade and Dicken's on the first Saturday of December.
- Take yourself on a holiday self-guided tour through one of our nine historic neighborhoods. Historic Ninth Street Hill is lined with 500 candles, lit during the evening.
- Visit the Purdue Memorial Union to see one of the largest indoor trees in Indiana, decorated for the holidays.
- Head to Prophetstown State Park and discover the Circle of Stones, trails, birds and wildlife. The park is free during off-season.
- Walk or drive through the Living Nativity with 14 life-size outdoor scenes with live animals! Held at the Faith Church off of SR26.
- Take a walk through Chauncey Village and smell the vast culinary delights of different ethnic cuisines.
- Go sledding at Slayter Hill or Murdock Park. Build a snowman at any of our 30+ area parks.
- Visit the Purdue University Galleries to view a variety of art forms and exhibits.
- Attend a program at the Tippecanoe County Public Library. Or read the perfect cookbook for hot chocolate and holiday cookies.
- Enjoy 100+ snow covered pieces of public art. Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for suggestions.
- See the exhibits at the Dauch Alumni Center and discover all of the reasons we are "Purdue Proud."
- Visit HomeOfPurdue.com for all the winter events throughout the community!

TWO GREAT CITIES, ONE GREAT UNIVERSITY.
