

2011 INDY INTERNATIONAL WINE COMPETITION

August 3, 4, 5, 2011

About the Wine Competition

The INDY is the largest scientifically organized and independent wine competition in the United States, the world's largest wine market. Nearly 3,000 entries from 15 countries and 40 US states were evaluated by 52 distinguished judges. Wine writers and winemakers, winegrowers and enologists, chefs and sommeliers, wine distributors, retailers and consumers meet every year in the heart of America, a truly central place for wines to be seen and recognized.

Wildcat Creek Winery, Lafayette, Indiana did exceptionally well in this competition!
